Shy but brave, the little girl moved nearer to the woman. "We must keep her with us," the little girl's people decided. "We'll keep her and her child safe."

Donkey found his mother, alone and mourning her lost child. They stared at each other for a long time. And then hugged each other very hard.

The child was soon on its way. "Pushi!" "Bring olankets!" "Water!" "Puuuuuuuuuuuhhhhhh!!!"

said others.

High up amongst the clouds they fell asleep.
Donkey dreamed that his mother was sick and calling to him. And when he woke up...

Donkey woke up to find a strange old man staring down at him. He looked into the old man's eyes and started to feel a twinkle of hope.

no longer fit on his mother's back. And no matter how hard he tried, he could not believe a human being. His mother was often like a human being. Sometimes she made him and frustrated. Sometimes she made him work meaner for animals.

By the time he stopped running, it was night, and Donkey was lost. "Hee haw?", he whispered to the darkness. "Hee Haw?" it echoed back. He was alone. Curling himself into a tight ball, he fell into a deep and troubled sleep.

Confusion and anger built up inside Donkey. He couldn't do this and he couldn't do that. He couldn't be like this and he couldn't be like that. He became so angry that, one day, he kicked his mother to the ground.
