Tingi ke enaa hi shi.

...

Tingi lived with his grandmother.

Eke le kwɛɔ tsɪnai le and.

...

He used to look after the cows with her.

Gbi ko le asraafoi le ba.

One day the soldiers came.

They took the cows away.

Ametke tsinal le tee.

They crept home very quietly.

Amewamw ketee shia diriy.

Tingi ke enaa le jo foi ni ameyatee.

Tingi and his grandmother ran away and hid.

Beni jeme jo le, Tingi ke enaa le je kpo.

When it was safe, Tingi and his grandmother came out.

Amtee ye jwei amli keyashi nydny mli.

They hid in the bush until night.

Asraatoi le ekome ke enane ma enc, shi

efee diny.

One of the soldiers put his foot right on him, but he kept quiet.

Ni asraafoi ɛ ba ekoonj.

Then the soldiers came back.

Tingi naa ke ɛ tee ye bai ɛ ashishi.

Grandmother hid Tingi under the leaves.
