Tingi ke enaa hi shi.

...

Tingi lived with his grandmother.

Εκε Ιε kwεϑ tsinai Ιε ανϑ.

...

He used to look after the cows with her.

Gbi ko lɛ asraafoi lɛ ba.

One day the soldiers came.

Amέκε tsinai lε tee.

They took the cows away.

Tingi ke enaa le jo foi ni ameyatee.

Tingi and his grandmother ran away and hid.

Amɛtee ye jwei amli keyashi nyɔɔŋ mli.

They hid in the bush until night.

Ni asraafoi le ba ekoonj.

Then the soldiers came back.

Tingi naa ke le tee ye bai le ashishi.

Grandmother hid Tingi under the leaves.

Asraafoi lɛ ekome kɛ enane ma enɔ, shi efee dihɛ.

One of the soldiers put his foot right on him,
but he kept quiet.

Beni jεmε jɔ lε, Tingi kε enaa lε je kpo.

When it was safe, Tingi and his grandmother came out.

Amɛwamɔ kɛtee shia diŋɔ.

They crept home very quietly.
