However, Sakima did not give up. His little sister supported him. She said, "Sakima's songs soothe me when I am hungry. They will soothe the rich man too."

“Wanganausabamu, kyisi mwanithu Sakima,” mwalwabu inyakamusaba. Sakima neryo inyakaligha erisubamu.
 “Can you sing it again and again, Sakima,” his sister would beg him. Sakima would accept and sing it over and over again.

“I can sing for him. He might be happy again,” Sakima told his parents. But his parents dismissed him. “He is very rich. You are only a blind boy. Do you think your song will help him?”

Sakima learned that the rich man's son was missing. The man was very sad and lonely.
