Katika kijiji kimoja kwenye mteremko wa Mlima wa Kenya, katika Afrika Mashariki, msichana mdogo alifanya kazi za shambani pamoja na mama yake. Msichana huyu aliiwaa Wangari.

In a village on the slopes of Mount Kenya in East Africa, a little girl worked in the fields with her mother. Her name was Wangari.

Wangari alipenda kufanya kaziri za nje. Alitumia jembe kulinma katika bustani ya familia Yake.
Kisha alipanda mbegeu ndogo katika ardhii yenye rutuba.

...

Wangari loved being outside. In her family's food garden she broke up the soil with her machete. She pressed tiny seeds into the warm earth.

Alipenda majira ya jioni, wakati juu linapozama. Giza lilipozidi mpaka aliposhindwa kuona mimea, Wangari alifahamu kuwa wakati wa kwenda nyumbani uliwadia. Alikuwa anafuata kinjia chembamba kilichopita uwanjani huku akivuka mito akielekea nyumbani.

Her favourite time of day was just after sunset. When it got too dark to see the plants, Wangari knew it was time to go home. She would follow the narrow paths through the fields, crossing rivers as she went.

Wangari alifariki mwaka 2011, lakini tunaweza kumkumbuka kila tunapoona mti maridadi.

Wangari died in 2011, but we can think of her every time we see a beautiful tree.

Wangari was a clever child and couldn't wait to go to school. But her mother and father wanted her to stay and help them at home. When she was seven years old, her big brother persuaded her parents to let her go to school.

Wangari alikuwa moto mwereni na alikuwa na hamu ya kwenya shule. Lakini wazazi wake walitaka awasaidie nyumbani. Alipotika umri wa miaka saba, kaka yake aliyashawishi wazazi wake kumwacha aende shule.

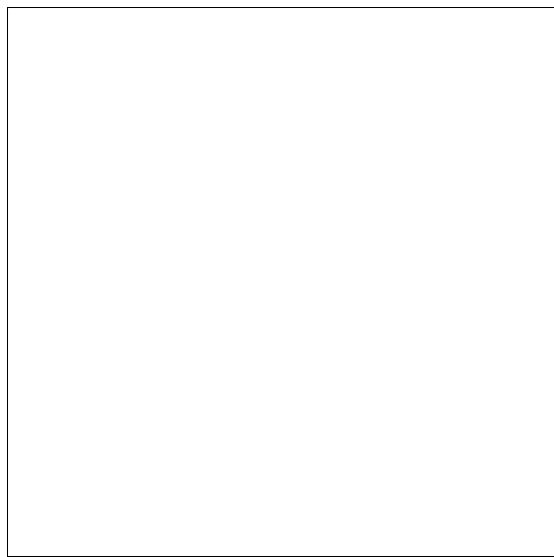

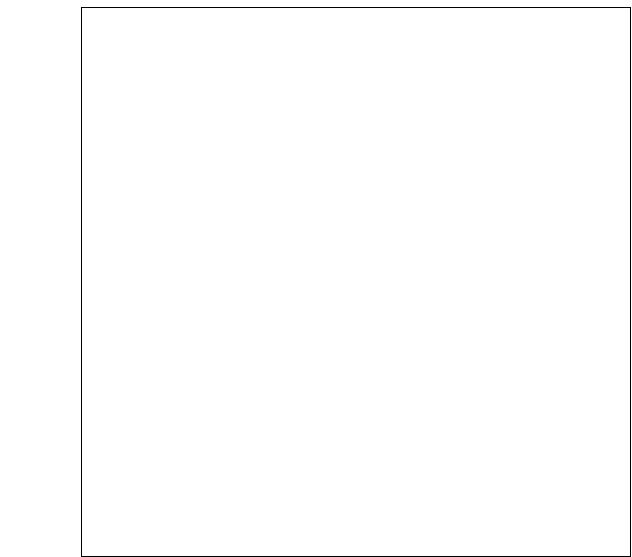

Wangari had worked hard. People all over the world took notice, and gave her a famous prize. It is called the Nobel Peace Prize, and she was the first African woman ever to receive it.

Na alikuwa wanamke wa Kiarfika wa kwanza tuzo. Tuzo hili inaitwa, Tuzo ya Amani ya Nobel; ulimwengu mzima walifahamu hili na wakampa kuopokea tuzo hili.

Alipenda kusoma! Wangari alijifunza zaidi na zaidi kwa kila kitabu alichokisoma. Alifanya vyema sana shulenii hadi akaalikwa kwenda Marekani kuendeleza masomo yake huko. Wangari alitiwa hamasa sana na nafasi hii! Alipenda kujua ulimwengu zaidi.

She liked to learn! Wangari learnt more and more with every book she read. She did so well at school that she was invited to study in the United States of America. Wangari was excited! She wanted to know more about the world.

Muda ulipopita, miti mipya ilikuwa misitu, na mito ilianza tena kupitisha maji. Ujumbe wa Wangari ulienea Afrika nzima. Leo, mamilioni ya miti imemea kutokana na mbegu za Wangari.

As time passed, the new trees grew into forests, and the rivers started flowing again. Wangari's message spread across Africa. Today, millions of trees have grown from Wangari's seeds.

At the American university Wangari learnt many new things. She studied plants and how they grow. And she remembered how she grew: playing games with her brothers in the shade of the trees in the beautiful Kenyan forests.

Ali pokua chouini huko Marekani, Wangari alijifunza mengi mapya. Alisoma mimea na jinsi inavyokua. Na alikumbuka maisha yake ya liyokua utotoni: kuchenza michemo na mitsu zake katika kivuli cha miti kwenye mitsu maridadi ya Kenya.

Wangari knew what to do. She taught the women how to plant trees from seeds. The women sold the trees and used the money to look after their families. The women were very happy. Wangari had helped them to feel powerful and strong.

Wangari ali jua la kufanya. Aliwafundiwa wanawake jinsi ya kupanda miti kutohana na miche. Wanawake walizituma kwa mahitaji ya familia walizopata walifurahi. Wangari alikuwa za o. Wanawake walifurahi. Wangari alikuwa amewasidia kuwa wenyewe nguvu na uwemo.

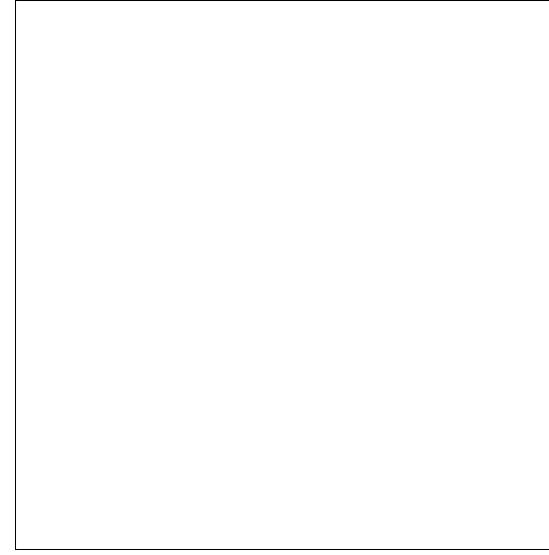

Jinsi alivyojifunza ndivyo alivyofahamu kuwa aliwapenda watu wa Kenya. Alitaka wafurahi na wawe wenyewe uhuru. Jinsi alivyojifunza ndivyo alivyokumbuka nyumbani kwao Afrika.

The more she learnt, the more she realised that she loved the people of Kenya. She wanted them to be happy and free. The more she learnt, the more she remembered her African home.

Alipokamilisha masomo yake, alirudi Kenya. Lakini nchi yake ilikuwa imebadilika. Kulikuwa na mashamba makubwa kila upande. Wanawake hawakupata kuni za kuwashaa moto wa kupikia. Watu walikuwa maskini na watoto walikuwa na njaa.

When she had finished her studies, she returned to Kenya. But her country had changed. Huge farms stretched across the land. Women had no wood to make cooking fires. The people were poor and the children were hungry.
