Tingi κε enaa hi shi.

...

Tingi lived with his grandmother.

Εκε ἰε κωεῶ τσιναι ἰε ανῶ.

...

He used to look after the cows with her.

Gbi ko lε asraafoi lε ba.

One day the soldiers came.

Amεke tsinai le tee.

They took the cows away.

Tingi κε enaa Ιε jo foi ni amεyatee.

Tingi and his grandmother ran away and hid.

Amɛtee ye jwɛi amli keyashi nyɔɔŋ mli.

They hid in the bush until night.

Ni asraafoi Iε ba ekoonj.

Then the soldiers came back.

Tingi naa kε lε tee yε bai lε ashishi.

Grandmother hid Tingi under the leaves.

Asraafoi Iε ekome κε enane ma eno, shi efee dijη.

One of the soldiers put his foot right on him,
but he kept quiet.

Beni jεmε jɔ lε, Tingi kε enaa lε je kpo.

When it was safe, Tingi and his grandmother came out.

Amɛwamɔ kɛtee shia diŋɔ.

They crept home very quietly.
